THE TICKER WAR IS ENDED.

CITY NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

Stock Exchange Ultimatum Accepted and the Wires Put Back.

To-Day's Record of Minor Happenings About Town.

Peace was declared between the Stock Exchange and the Gold and Stock Quotation Telegraph Company to-day, and the ticker war is at an end, to a tune.

This morning the Gold and Stock Company put its wires in the Board-room of the Stock Exchange again, and was sending out quotations to its customers in the usual fashion.

The Stock Exchange, however, had come out ahead in the fight, and after seating the ticker company twice in the courts to the irritation proceedings which were recently brought by the latter compelled it to accept terms in part to settle the dispute.

The Gold and Stock Exchange was that the Gold and Stock Company should pay $100 a day for its quotations, and that this money should be paid in at the close of each day's business.

In the Gold and Stock Company has assented to, Secretary Ely, of the Exchange, says that the arrangement can be terminated at any time by either party giving notice of his right to say when the quotations can be given.

It is believed that the Gold and Stock Company will be compelled to take all its instrumentalities off the market to-day.

The Gold and Stock Company has assented to, Secretary Ely, of the Exchange,
says that the arrangement can be terminated
at any time by either party giving notice
of his right to say when the quotations
can be given.
